

July is here, and that means you can stream a brand-new FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES episode for FREE or purchase it via download, commercial free with extended scenes, for only $1.99. July's episode is entitled and your host into the macabre, as always, is Malcolm McDowell. "Mercy" is written by the Max Allan Collins, creator of ROAD TO PERDITION. Max has written other FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES including "Reincarnal" and "A Good Head on His Shoulders." His next story will be "House of Blood" (available this December).

Here's the plot for "Mercy" ...Mercy Mathers looks like a blonde angel, but everyone knows she's the wildest party girl in Clarion High. But when her boozy, slutty antics cause the death of nearly the entire high school football team's starting line-up, Mercy seeks forgiveness by way of religion. Once she's saved, Mercy feels compelled also to save the bad boys she once sought out for her own pleasure. Now she offers them herself to compel them, too, to find the Lord. But bad boys tend to be bad, and to prevent them from backsliding, Mercy has to sacrifice them before they can fall from grace. But what guy would ever guess that the sexiest, most beautiful girl in school is a homicidal maniac on a mission from God?

The cast includes: Malcolm McDowell (Host), Natalie Berg (Mercy), Gary Tiedeman (Rod & Oscar Pike), JoBe Cerny (Doctor), Jim McCance (Pastor Strickland & Fango announcer), Christian Stolte (Dan Dickey), Ambre Lake (Cindi), Kurt Naebig (Randy Johnson) and Carl Amari (Peter Bishop).

I hope you enjoyed last month's episode "Table Scraps" by M.J. Elliott. M.J. Elliott also wrote "Living Space" and co-wrote "A Heated Premonition." His next script "Psychomanteum" will be available this October.

Don't forget that "Mercy" is yours to stream FREE the entire month of July. If you'd like to own it commercial free with extended scenes, please digitally-

. For those of you who are unfamiliar with this radio series - here's the scoop:

FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES is a new-time radio drama series produced in the flavor of classic radio from the 1930's, 40's and 50's but using today's state-of-the-art digital technology. Each and every month a new 45-minute episode will be available for you to hear anytime you'd like just by logging on to the Fangoria website at www.fangoria.com and streaming the episode for FREE (the streams contain a few national commercials).

Each episode will 'thrill you and chill you' but I warn you: These radio dramas are not for the faint of heart. We recommend that persons under the age of 14 not tune in! Although these episodes are meant to amuse and exercise your imagination - they can be quite scary, shocking, and include adult language and adult situations. FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES are hosted by acclaimed actor, Malcolm McDowell. They are written by top writers of today and include full casts (often featuring Hollywood celebrities), movie-quality sound effects and original music scores by Fangoria's Editor-in-Chief, and accomplished composer, Chris Alexander.

We launched this series October, 2011 and all of our past shows are available for digital-download to any listening device for only $1.99 each. The digital-downloads are commercial free with extended scenes (the director's cut). And don't forget that the radio drama scripts of current and past episodes are available for you to print PDF copies for FREE. These are the same scripts used by Malcolm McDowell and the actors. It's fun to print your copy and read along while listening.

This series is also available on Sirius/XM and on CD in special collector editions from AudioGo at: <http://www.audiogo.com/>

Next month, you won't want to miss "Talking in the Dark" by Dennis Etchison. You may recall Dennis Etchison's previous episode "The Late Shift." The plot for "Talking in the Dark" is: A lonely man whiles away the hours by reading stories from his favorite mystery writer. A chance encounter with the writer answers the age-old question: Where does a writer 'really' get his ideas?
