Written by Samuel Zimmerman
Saturday, 01 May 2010 09:22

Not many bands can take on the world of fiction storytelling and concept albums quite like Coheed & Cambria, who've spread across five records an epic tale that manages to weave together sci-fi, horror, romance and coming of age. With their most recent release, YEAR OF THE BLACK RAINBOW, Coheed are delving into the meaning behind the songs with a series of videos. Read on to check out a look at "In The Flame Of Error" with singer Claudio Sanchez and veteran metal drummer, Howard Stern personality and Fango friend Richard Christy!

"Produced by Atticus Ross and Joe Baressi (Queens of the Stone Age, Tool), YEAR OF THE BLACK RAINBOW is the eagerly awaited prequel to—and likely the final installment of--the Amory Wars tetralogy chronicled on Coheed and Cambria's four previous inter-related concept albums--THE SECOND STAGE TURBINE BLADE (2002); IN KEEPING SECRETS OF SILENT EARTH: 3 (2003); GOOD APOLLO, I'M BURNING STAR, VOLUME ONE, FROM FEAR THROUGH THE EYES OF MADNESS (2005) and GOOD APOLLO, I'M BURNING STAR, VOLUME TWO: NO WORLD FOR TOMORROW (2007). The deluxe edition of the record already sold out, but is being reprinted and is available at The Hardcover Deluxe edition (Black Cards no longer available) includes a 352-page of the Black Rainbow novel, penned by the band's Claudio Sanchez and New York Times Bestselling author Peter David, as well as a "Making of" DVD featuring studio and interview footage."

YEAR OF THE BLACK RAINBOW is out now, you can find more info at Coheed's official site .

{jcomments on}