Peaches Christ Productions is self-distributing ALL ABOUT EVIL, directed by Joshua Grannell, the alter-ego of San Francisco drag performer Peaches Christ. Confirmed to hit over 20 markets, including New York, Los Angeles and Chicago, the film will be presented with the Peaches Christ Experience in 4-D for select cities. A gore-worthy pre-show hosted by Peaches Christ with the Midnight Mass players, these film events will also feature appearances by special guests.

To start off the launch of the tour, a teaser trailer for the film is available at the official Peaches Christ Productions website
, which also lists the ALL ABOUT EVIL release schedule.

“This cross-country theatrical release, featuring Peaches Christ-hosted pre-shows full of performance, audience participation and old-fashioned William Castle-style gimmicks, is a really exciting, fresh approach to film distribution,” says Grannell. “After creating countless Midnight Mass events, it seems natural to present our movie in this fashion, so we’re actively reaching out to audience members, encouraging them to wear their finest gore couture and become part of our army of EVIL!”
