

Well, October is here and that means Halloween is just around the corner! It also means you can stream a brand-new FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES episode for FREE or purchase it via download, commercial free with extended scenes, for only $1.99. October's episode is entitled "Psychomantium" and your host into the macabre, as always, is Malcolm McDowell. "Psychomantium" is written by M. J. Elliott, who also brought you "Living Space," "A Heated Premonition" and "Table Scraps." Here's the plot for "Psychomantium" ...

New York in the early 20th Century – something is murdering and mutilating the families of the city's noted psychologists. Is a former colleague of Dr. Alex Quentin responsible for these horrible crimes? Or is the culprit from a place beyond human comprehension?

Don't forget that "Psychomantium" is yours to stream FREE the entire month of October. If you'd like to own the commercial-free version (with extended scenes) please digitally-download it for only $1.99.

AND AS A SPECIAL HALLOWEEN TREAT: Both the FREE stream and the commercial-free version include a SPECIAL BONUS -- a 6-minute horror extra entitled "Monster Therapy" by legendary electro shock rocker and lyricist Kevin Ogilvie (aka Nivek Ogre) of SKINNY PUPPY and his good pal and accomplished writer/musician/actor, Joe Moe. Don't miss this abstract, dark psychodrama of a doctor who can hear a man's voice from the world beyond in his gramophone. This 6-minute opus is heard first, then enjoy "Psychomantium."

For those of you who are unfamiliar with this radio series - here's the scoop:

FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES is a new-time radio drama series produced in the flavor of classic radio from the 1930's, 40's and 50's but using today's state-of-the-art digital technology. Each and every month a new 45-minute episode will be available for you to hear anytime you'd like just by logging on to the Fangoria website at www.fangoria.com and streaming the episode for FREE (the streams contain a few national commercials).

Each episode will 'thrill you and chill you' but I warn you: These radio dramas are not for the faint of heart. We recommend that persons under the age of 14 not tune in! Although these episodes are meant to amuse and exercise your imagination - they can be quite scary, shocking, and include adult language and adult situations. FANGORIA'S DREADTIME STORIES are hosted by acclaimed actor, Malcolm McDowell. They are written by top writers of today and include full casts (often featuring Hollywood celebrities), movie-quality sound effects and original music scores by Fangoria's Editor-in-Chief, and accomplished composer, Chris Alexander.

We launched this series October, 2011 and all of our past shows are available for digital-download to any listening device for only $1.99 each. The digital-downloads are commercial free with extended scenes (the director's cut). And don't forget that the radio drama scripts of current and past episodes are available for you to print PDF copies for FREE. These are the same scripts used by Malcolm McDowell and the actors. It's fun to print your copy and read along while listening.

This series is also available on Sirius/XM and on CD in special collector editions from AudioGo at: <http://www.audiogo.com/>

Next month, you won't want to miss our November episode entitled "Here Come the Sludge" by Steve Nubie. Here's the plot:

Some scientists believe that all of the water on earth was the result of icy comets bombarding the primordial planet and simply melting into deep oceans, lakes and seas. Others believe that ancient microorganisms hitched a ride and gave rise to life for the first time. It seems to be a preposterous proposition. Unless you consider that a fresh comet is en route with the seeds of a new form of life, or perhaps...a new form of death.
