FANGORIA is honored to be giving away an awesome werewolf costume, courtesy of HalloweenCostumes.com! Now you'll be able to show up looking good and ready for a night of full moon-induced debauchery, just in time for all your summer horror conventions.

The outfit includes a full, realistic werewolf mask, made from polyester and covered in faux gray fur. It has a plastic interior, while the exterior is covered in a rubber foamlike material, with a jaw that moves when you move your mouth (if the mask is too large, foam blocks are included to enclose the gaps and facilitate movement). An adjustable velcro strap on the interior secures the mask in place, and slits for the eyes provide unrestricted vision. The white, black and green flannel shirt is made from polyester and has shredded edges for a worn appearance. Padding fills the shoulders for a full look and fur emerges from the chest, torso and sleeves to complete your transformation. Bring the full-moon legend to life in this great costume!
