Last March, Japan experienced one of the most overwhelming national tragedies on record. In addition to the irreparable loss of life, the overall damage costs exceed $300 billion, marking the Tohoku earthquake and tsunami as the most costly natural disaster in the history of the world. As such, many businesses and organizations across the world have come together to aid and support Japan in their time of crisis. FANGORIA, America's #1 horror entertainment company, is proud to be a part of the relief effort.

Fango and friends have donated some of their products to be auctioned on eBay. One hundred percent of all funds collected from the sales of the following items will go directly to the Red Cross.
