FANGORIA will host a free screening of Hammer Films’ WAKE WOOD, the new supernatural thriller starring GAME OF THRONES’ Aidan Gillen, THE CHILDREN’s Eva Birthistle and SWEENEY TODD’S Timothy Spall. The special event, set for Tuesday, June 21 at 7 p.m., will be held at New York City’s Cinema Village (22 East 12th Street, off University Place). The film’s co-writer/director, David Keating, will be attending the show for a Q&A, and you can also expect some cool door prizes. See below for more details and pics.

The Fango WAKE WOOD screening will be a free show; to obtain tickets, send an e-mail to FANGORIAScreening@gmail.com. You must list “WAKE WOOD” as your subject line. Offer is good for you and one guest. Plus tell us your full name and whether you want to be added to the FANGORIA newsletter list so we can inform you about future Fango screenings and events. Names will be checked at the door. Offer is first come, first served, and we will confirm your rsvp. Seating is not guaranteed, however. This advance preview is sponsored by MPI/Dark Sky Films, who will release WAKE WOOD to DVD and Blu-ray on July 5.

WAKE WOOD tells the story of Patrick and Louise Daley (Gillen and Birthistle), whose 9-year-old daughter, Alice (Ella Connolly), is killed in a horrific dog attack. To escape their grief, the devastated young parents move to the remote rural Irish community of Wake Wood (the movie was shot on location in County Donegal, Ireland). Sensing Patrick and Louise’s loss, the strange people of Wake Wood introduce the couple to a bizarre pagan ritual that will bring Alice back from the grave—for three days only. The Daleys find the idea disturbing and exciting in equal measure, but once they agree to terms with Arthur, the village’s mysterious leader, a far bigger question looms: What will they do when it’s time for Alice to leave them forever?

[redacted]