Our friends at the Montreal Comic Con, which runs from September 14th-16th 2012 in Montreal, Quebec, have just informed us about their fantastic film lineup in their first ever Horrorfest. Previously, the con has dealt primarily in science fiction and four color entertainment, but this year they're making up for lost time by rolling out 15 features and 15 shorts (many of them Canadian premieres) from all over the world and sculpted by a cavalcade of genre talent.

Another 15 films will be announced in August...stay tuned. Head to Montreal Horrorfest for more information on the features, the times and venue and the 15 scintillating short films in the program.

Here's the lineup:
