FANGORIA

FANGORIA #321 doesn't hit the shelves or arrive in your mailbox till next month, but we've got the first peek at the the full contents and the cover—with a classic telekinetic teen staring back.

With a new version of CARRIE coming this year, we take an in-depth look at the man who first immortalized Stephen King's horror heroine on screen: Brian De Palma, with an exclusive interview on his career up to his new thriller PASSION, chats with CARRIE co-stars P.J. Soles and William Katt, etc. We also talk exclusively to Kimberly Peirce, the director of CARRIE 2013; Ashley Bell, star of THE LAST EXORCISM PART II, with an exclusive centerspread photo; Park Chan-wook, the Korean director of OLDBOY making his Stateside debut with STOKER; five of the filmmakers behind the anthology THE ABC'S OF DEATH; the creators of the documentaries MY AMITYVILLE HORROR and ROOM 237; Danai Gurira, THE WALKING DEAD's Michonne; and lots more. Head down past the cover for the full details!
