We gave you the first look here at the poster for the After Dark Original chiller THE TASK, and now the first still from the movie has emerged, along with international one-sheets for the Original flicks FERTILE GROUND and SECONDS APART. Jump past the jump to give ’em a look.

Directed by Alex Orwell from a script by Kenny Yakkel, THE TASK is about a reality show set in an abandoned prison (shot in Bulgaria), where six young contestants become the victims of real and evil supernatural forces. Tom Payne, Texas Battle, Amara Karan, Alexandra Staden, Rob Ostlere and Jonas Talkington star.

SECONDS APART, directed by Antonio Negret and written by George Richards, focuses on Seth and Jonah (Gary and Edmund Entin), telekinetic twins who wreak gory havoc among their fellow students—until circumstances lead them into conflict with each other. FERTILE GROUND, directed by NIGHT OF THE DEMONS’ Adam Gierasch from a script he wrote with Jace Anderson, stars Leisha Hailey, Gale Harold and Chelcie Ross and is set in a small New Hampshire town where a married couple are plagued by ancestral spirits that possess the husband and target the wife’s unborn child. The eight After Dark Originals are due out this fall; you can see the series’ official website here .
