It has been a while since the INSIDE team of Alexandre Bustillo and Julien Maury have worked on a film. They were pitched a number of American projects (including the HELLRAISER reboot), but nothing ever came to fruition. So can you blame them for being LIVID? Yup, that's the title of their new movie, which is freshly into principal photography. Check out these images and the story after the break.

Twitch Film got the pix, which you can see below. Here's the LIVID synopsis:

“It's young Lucy's first day as a trainee in-house caregiver. She visits Mrs. Jessel, an old woman who lies in cerebral coma, by herself, in her large desolate house. Learning by accident that Mrs. Jessel, a former dance teacher of repute, supposedly possesses a treasure somewhere in the house, Lucy and friends William and Ben decide to search the house in the hope of finding it. At night, they get into the house, which reveals itself to be increasingly peculiar. Their hunt for Mrs. Jessel's treasure leads them into a horrifying supernatural series of events that will change Lucy forever...”
