

Zombie Authors Have Bloody Book Date with Morgue Anne at Seattle's Northwest Film Forum

Written by Thom Carnell

Friday, 24 February 2012 11:48

---

On Saturday, February 25th, at the Seattle Film Forum, Simply Twisted Productions invites you to a Book Date at the Northwest Film Forum at open at 2pm. This is a new event series featuring Morgue Anne of "The Twisted Geeks" and "Sex and Death with Morgue Anne." This is Anne doing what she does best - talking to authors about their books and creative process.

The first Book Date will be Zombie Themed and feature three authors of the genre to talk about their experiences with the undead.

Thom Carnell is a horror writer whose fiction has been featured in Swank Magazine, in Carpe Noctem Magazine, and in the horror anthology, Bloody Carnival from Pill Hill Press. He also works as a journalist and his interviews and profiles can be found in Fangoria Magazine and on Dread Central.com & Twitchfilm.com. He is the co-creator of The Night Crew Podcast, as well as a Senior Programmer/Panelist for Seattle's ZomBCon and Crypticon. He is a graduate of the San Francisco College of Mortuary Science, a certified eye enucleist, and a Registered Polysomnographic Technologist. He is currently at work on the sequel to his horror-action novel, NO FLESH SHALL BE SPARED (available ). For more, see his

here

official site

Eloise Knapp is now writing a sequel to her first novel after her success self-publishing The Undead Situation on Kindle, which sparked the interest of a publisher. She is also the editor-in-chief of Z Magazine, the first magazine written by zombies for zombies. Knapp's love for zombies doesn't stop at writing stories. She also enjoys zombie photography, reading and reviewing zindie (zombie + indie) books, and philosophical zombie discussions. With her collection of weaponry, Blackhawk tactical gear, and a thirst for all things survival, she awaits the zombocalypse eagerly. Knapp currently resides in Washington state (where her novel is based) and is working on a degree in graphic design at Seattle University. You can find out more about her at here.

Timothy W. Long has been writing stories since he could hold a crayon and has also read

Zombie Authors Have Bloody Book Date with Morgue Anne at Seattle's Northwest Film Forum

Written by Thom Carnell

Friday, 24 February 2012 11:48

---

enough books to choke a landfill. He has a fascination with all things zombie, and a deep seeded need to jot words on paper and thrust them at people. Tim is the author of the zombie novels Among the Living and Beyond the Barriers, both from Permuted Press. His zombedy novel THE ZOMBIE WILSON DIARIES was named one of the best zombie novels of the year by Barnes and Noble. Tim also co-authored the bizarro novel WACKTARDS OF THE APOCALYPSE with Sir Jonathan Moon, which has become the preferred version of the end of the world by rapture survivors everywhere. 2012 will see sequels to both AMONG THE LIVING and BEYOND THE BARRIERS.

"Book Date" is sponsored by Cafe Mox and Crypticon Seattle.