We're gearing up to unleash FANGORIA Presents, our latest lineup of films on DVD and On Demand, and horror fans in L.A. are getting an exclusive, free sneak peek at the first!

Next Friday, Brainstorm Media presents a screening of the upcoming FANGORIA Films release, INHUMAN RESOURCES. The highly original Australian shocker from director Daniel Krige tells of "convicted 'Headhunter' serial killer and former corporate manager, Thomas Reddmann (Redd), demented from various experimental procedures he endured at the unorthodox mental asylum from which he has now escaped. Redd maintains his innocence and is determined to prove it. He creates Redd Incorporated, a twisted version of the modern office environment, filling it with six abducted people he holds directly responsible for his incarceration. His captive 'human resources' are literally chained to their desks and forced to perform the impossible job of finding the real killer. They must work in gruelling circumstances to prove the unprovable or face gruesome consequences."

Co-starring horror legend Tom Savini and featuring his return to Makeup FX Supervising(!), Twitch has called INHUMAN RESOURCES, "disgustingly gory and wickedly funny." You can find out for yourself at the Jumpout Cafe (13203 Ventura Blvd) in Studio City on Friday, February 15 at 7:30 p.m. The movie is absolutely free, we just ask you RSVP through the official Facebook event
