The haunting Irish ghost film, THE ECLIPSE (read our previous feature here, and see our first video interview

ere

) is currently releasing across the U.S. thanks to Magnolia Pictures, and today FANGORIA brings you the second of four installments of a video interview with director Conor McPherson and star Ciaran Hinds. Read on for more!

THE ECLIPSE tells the story of Michael Farr (Hinds) a widower raising his two children alone and plagued by strange and eerie happenings in his home. As an annual literary festival rolls into town, Michael volunteers and is assigned to look after Lena Morelle (Iben Hjejle), an author of books concerning the supernatural. Believing she can help and happy to meet someone who will accept his fears as reality, the two soon become friendly but eventually their relationship is complicated by Lena's past fling (Aidan Quinn) and Michael's escalating haunting.

In this clip, McPherson, Hinds and Tony Timpone take a look at one of THE ECLIPSE's greatest strengths, its cast.
